

REPUBLICANS WARMLY GREETED AT RESIDENCE OF THEIR RIVALS

Great Demonstration at Elko For Platt, Roberts, Moran and McKay Last Night

(Special to the Bonanza.)

ELKO, Oct. 21.—Here, at the home of two candidates on the Democratic state ticket, the Republicans were given a warm welcome. The party, coming from Jarbidge, was surprised ten miles from town by a long procession of automobiles filled with the best citizens, who acted as an escort and rolled into Elko, preceding the Platt-Roberts party three abreast. Huge bonfires of blazing logs blazed from the principal street corners, and a brass band added to the happy occasion.

The Bradley opera house was filled even to the capacity of the galleries and scores stood up in the rear, unable to find seats. The audience seemed to be a Republican one, as every rally was greeted with applause, and there were no interruptions.

CATHOLIC FAIR OPENS NEXT MONDAY EVENING

Next Monday evening at 7 o'clock St. Patrick's church fair will open and will last until Wednesday evening. The ladies and misses of the church, and even the children, have been working hard, doing fancy work of all kinds. They will also have a fishing pond for the "little" and "grown-up" children. They will tell your fortune, make you dance (five piece orchestra) and when you get tired a dandy little lunch will be served you. Everybody is invited to come and help along a good cause and enjoy themselves at the same time.

SOCIALISTS DENOUNCE PITTMAN LAND BILL

A. Grant Miller, socialist candidate for United States senator, during a speech at Winnemucca Monday night, prefaced his remarks by saying that Nevada is a great state in area, containing 70,000,000 acres of land, of which 3,000,000 acres are owned by the Southern Pacific, and 3,000,000 more by other private corporations, says the Carson News.

"You cannot make a populous state by mining," continued the speaker, "for there are not enough of them. You cannot make a populous state by cattle and sheep raising, for these industries furnish employment to comparatively few men. The only method left to populate our state is by agriculture, and to do this the people must get their land free of cost and the federal government must supply the required water for irrigation."

"Senator Pittman introduced a bill in congress to sell 7,000,000 acres of the best land in the state to the highest bidder, in return for the promise of a reclamation over Pat McCarran, whom he fears above all other men. This land to be selected by a land commission 'to be' appointed by the state government. Remark the words 'to be,' which mean at some future time. As a matter of fact, all of this land has already been selected, surveyed and mapped, and it embraces the cream of all the land left in the state."

"When asked on the floor of the senate what had become of the former land grant of 2,000,000 acres, Senator Pittman replied that it had furnished homes to 2000 families. Inquiry at the Carson land office shows that it is now owned by Lux, Miller & Lux, and Miller. When Senator Newlands was asked by Senator Martin of South Dakota, on the floor of the senate, if he thought the land was actually worth $1.25 per acre, he replied that while he hardly thought so, he would defer to the judgment of his colleague.

"One syndicate has already selected 15,000 acres of this land that is worth $65 an acre, for which it will pay $1.25 per acre if this bill becomes a law."

"I don't want any of this land myself, for the reason that I am not much of a farmer. I am a lawyer, and propose to continue practicing my profession—at least until the fourth day of next March."

"After careful estimates, the value of this entire 7,000,000 acres of land has been conservatively placed at $13.50 per acre, while it will be sold at $1.25, leaving a profit of $12.25 per acre, or a total of more than $85,000,000 for the entire job."

"As a cloak for this huge steal, it is proposed to donate the money received from the sale of the land to the public schools. We have a fine school system, which is being paid for by you and by me without objection."
